

MOST STYLISH | LA

JUNE 10TH, 2015

 POSTED IN FASHION BY SAMANTHA LIM

Between the perpetual warm weather, the gorgeous scenery, and the inspiring mix of personalities, Los Angeles is a natural setting for some of the country's most stylish people. West Coast fashion has developed its own eclectic vibe—clothing that's comfortable, casual, and decidedly cool—which is why we're thrilled to present our latest Most Stylish list, Los Angeles edition.

Between designers, bloggers, models, legendary billionaires, businessmen, and Instagram stars, we've combed the city for charismatic personalities, unique talents, and—obviously—unbelievable style.

Most Stylish LA List

Andrew Weitz, Style consultant

Previously a talent agent for William Morris Endeavor Entertainment, Andrew Weitz left the agency to pursue his passion for fashion by creating his own style consultancy firm, The Weitz Effect. He dedicates his time to helping male clients in various professional fields identify and express their unique sense of personal fashion. To him, L.A. style is “at times, conservative depending on your field of business. But, definitely relaxed, casual, and hip.”
